On August 31, 2011, Robert C. Jones, United States District Court Judge, District of Nevada, in Winnemucca Indian Colony, et al., v. United States of America ex rel. Department of the Interior, et al., No. 3:11-cv-00622-RCJ-VPC (Nev.), ordered that "the BIA must give interim recognition to some person or body of persons as the legitimate representative(s) of the Winnemucca Indian Colony of Nevada and manifest its decision by notice in the docket no later than 5:00 p.m. P.D.T. on September 7, 2011." As directed by the Court's Order, and without waiving any objections in this proceeding, I submit the following designation:

I hereby designate Thomas Wasson and William Bills--the only surviving members of the last Tribal Council for the Winnemucca Indian Colony, Nevada, with which the BIA had a government-to-government relationship--the interim representatives of the Winnemucca Indian Colony of Nevada solely for the limited purpose of carrying out government-to-government relations, including the preparation of a voting roll, establishment of an election board, and conducting a tribal election to establish a tribal council under the Constitution and Bylaws of the Winnemucca Indian Colony Nevada (1971). The Bureau of Indian Affairs remains willing and able to assist in this election process in accordance with the Winnemucca Tribal election ordinance and the guidelines of 25 C.F.R. Part 81. See 25 C.F.R §81.2(b).

This designation expires in accordance with the Court's Order at 12:00 p.m. PDT on September 13, 2011.
